

June 30, 2025

Media Contact:
Beth Fox
AVP of Communications
bfox@iphca.org

IPHCA Partners with A.T. Still University to Offer Graduate Degree Discounts

SPRINGFIELD, ILL – A.T. Still University's College of Graduate Health Studies (ATSU-CGHS) is offering Illinois Primary Health Care Association (IPHCA) employees and IPHCA organizational employees a 20 percent discount on online master's and doctorate degree programs, and graduate certificates.

These online programs afford students the opportunity to study from anywhere and join other ATSU-CGHS alumni as influential leaders in the health professions. Degree programs include master of public health, master of public health-dental emphasis, master of health sciences, master of science in kinesiology, master of health administration, master of education in health professions education, doctor of health sciences, doctor of health administration, doctor of nursing practice and doctor of education in health professions education. Graduate certificates include health sciences, health administration, public health, education in health professions, and nursing.

ATSU-CGHS is a preeminent leader in online health professions education. With 25 years of experience in online education, the school offers an engaging, personal education experience that is student-centered. ATSU-CGHS was awarded Exemplary Program status from Quality Matters, a global organization focusing on quality assurance for online and innovative digital teaching and learning environments.

Programs feature asynchronous learning environments to provide the flexibility needed for working professionals to earn a graduate degree while maintaining a personal touch. Students have opportunities to meet with faculty remotely, are assigned a program-specific academic advisor who is there for them throughout their academic journey, and classroom learning is designed to be applied directly into students' day-to-day professional lives.

ATSU-CGHS enrollment representatives offer a personal approach to helping students find the right program and completing the application process. For more information, contact an enrollment representative at (877) 626-5577 or cghsonlineadmissions@atsu.edu. For IPHCA staff inquiries contact, Ashley Colwell, acolwell@iphca.org.

About the Illinois Primary Health Care Association (IPHCA)

IPHCA is a nonprofit trade association that serves as the voice of and champion for Illinois' 56 community health centers, which serve more than 1.5 million patients annually across more than 430 service sites in medically underserved rural, urban, and suburban areas. IPHCA.ORG

About A.T. Still University's College of Graduate Health Studies (ATSU-CGHS)

ATSU-CGHS educates and prepares health professionals with graduate degrees for a variety of settings. Doctoral and master's programs include Health Administration, Public Health, Health Professions Education, Health Sciences, Kinesiology, and Nursing Practice. The College's goal is to provide comprehensive and relevant graduate education through superior quality, innovative online programs.

###